Assessor is text, and there is no guessing at a winner.

The Nixwa has no particular favorite in the field and has not therefore advocated the claims of any candidate. The boys are consistent of the control of the claims of any candidate. The boys are competent man win, and one that can be elected most Angest. This is what the party wants and principally desires. We therefore, urge upon all Pemocrate to go to the polls and vots. Do not dedge the issue by steying at home, but turne out and make the vote as large as possible.

Tax years ago the sight of a rail rond president walking eround the streets of Cloverport, looking out a suitable place which to put the machine abops for a rail-road would have ceused some peoples year to have stood out as big as walunts. But you have a sound the street was to have stood out as big as walunts. But presidents and all prominent men come and go as a matter of fact. Neither do they stop here altogether. Other portions of our county are visited food all of us are feeling better by it. President McCracken of our county are visited food all of us are feeling better by it. President McCracken was here the other day and beered his special car for Irvington, where he took the J.
